

Parties in Party Plans

Margaret Shields entertained a group of teen-agers at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Shields, 1650 West 252nd street, at a St. Patrick's Day party.

A scavenger hunt was the highlight of the evening fun, and after returning to the Shields home a variety of sandwiches, pickles, cake, doughnuts and punch were served.

Included in the group were Claudette Omohundro, Dottie Schweitzer, Annabelle Emory, Gloria Benedict, Theano Peter-

CONDITION IMPROVED

Mrs. Marie Kerber is recovering from a recent illness. She is at home at 2125 Lomita boulevard.

'NO-NAIL' HANGER

If you like to hang lots of pictures but worry about chipping plaster, you'll be interested in a neat product called the No-Nail Hanger. You merely wet and spread two cloth wings, press them to the wall, and a metal hook is ready for any 10-pound load. The hanger grips to paper, paint, wood, glass, metal or tile until you strip it off. Not even a smudge remains. They're sold for $1 and House Beautiful Magazine says they're really worth mentioning.

Textile Painting Class Open

With the addition of a textile painting class at the Seaside School, the class now held on Monday and Wednesday nights at the Torrance Evening High School at 7 o'clock has openings for a few more students.

Students may start at this time because the instruction is individual. Women are asked to bring articles of clothing like ties, shirts, dresses or napkins, towels and tablecloths. A wide variety of designs and colors, including figures, cartoon characters, flowers, animals and landscape scenes may be used to enliven, decorate and enhance the appearance of your personal items and household effects. The cost of materials is extremely low.

Go directly to class at the Torrance Evening High School on Monday or Wednesday night at 7 o'clock to register. Telephone 645 for further information.

'The Raider' to Be Shown at Museum

Britain's great wartime documentary film, "The Raider," will be presented at the current series of film programs at the Los Angeles County Museum in Exposition Park tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

The feature length picture is based on an actual incident in the war at sea during World War II. A British warship is torpedoed and the survivors, about to be rescued, have to help fight off another sub attack on the rescue ship.

Torrance Girl Becomes Bride in Okinawa Rite

U. S. ARMY PHOTO
Lt. Col. Albert Wayne Nickel, 29th Infantry Regiment Chaplain, read the religious ceremony in the marriage of Miss Helen Mea Ericson of Torrance, and Lt. Richard A. Huff of Arlington, Virginia, Saturday afternoon, March 4, in the chapel at Wupunja. A civil service had been performed previously by the mayor of Naha, Junin, Toma, at the Military Government offices there.

The bride entered the chapel on the arm of Lt. Col. Walter A. Dix of Midland Park, New Jersey, director of communications for the 20th Air Force at Kadena. She wore a gown of heavy white satin fashioned with a low neckline and an over-skirt of white net. The bodice and small apron were embellished in pearl beads, and her veil of illusion fell from a matching coronet band. She carried white orchids.

Her maid of honor, Miss Anna Vecht of Saleneth, California, wore a dress of deep orchid net over light orchid satin with a cap of the same material. Her flowers were purple orchids.

Miss Annette Baldwin, daughter of Lt. and Mrs. Charles R. Baldwin of Carbondale, Ill., was the flower girl. She wore a dress of yellow net and satin and carried a basket of yellow daisies.

Lt. Marlin L. Richardson, commanding officer of the 29th Army band, sang.

Lt. Huff is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Huff, 635 North Lincoln street, Arlington. He is executive officer of Company G, 2nd Battalion, 29th Infantry Regiment. Miss Ericson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Ericson, 2247 Dencker avenue, of Torrance. She is employed in the Civilian Personnel office in Rycom.

Garden Club Entertained by Lomitan

Members of Torrance Terrace Garden Club met Wednesday at the Lomita home of Mrs. John B. Hoffman. Club president, Mrs. Frank J. Farrell, welcomed as guests Misses John Erickson and Howard Raymond.

Program Chairman Mrs. Marion Hartley led a discussion of soils and their care, and presented Mrs. Bert Duroy who showed how to create a corsage. She used two beautiful cattilya orchids which she had raised, for her demonstration. The finished corsage was presented to Mrs. Albert Ewalt. An arrangement of white iris was made by Mrs. Farrell for discussion by the group.

Plans for the forthcoming anniversary party were told, and members were reminded again of the annual Flower and Hobby Show scheduled for May 11 to 13 in civic auditorium.

Delicious refreshments were served from a table lovely with a colorful peach blossom arrangement.

Next meeting, on April 12, will be held at the home of Mrs. Douglas McClay, 1500 West 214th street.

WRITERS REPORT PROGRESS

The proper preparation of manuscripts and the value of an agent's service to the beginner, were subjects discussed Tuesday evening, when the San Pedro Writers' Guild met in the teachers' room of the Leland Street school.

During the business session Allan Ramsay reported the sale of a filler to Western Family magazine. Photographs and an article on "camping by Harold Monroe were reported sold to Science and Mechanics. Cleo Cooper reported the acceptance of an article.

Dorothy Brown Wood opened the program with a poem dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Porter who leave shortly on a trip to Ireland.

That the ideals of David Livingstone could annul the ills of today's world was implied in Cleo Cooper's poem "David Livingstone." Mabel Cory found a cure for those same ills in a nature allegory titled "Glory of the Land."

"Two quatrains, "Sir" and "Import" were Beatrice Newhard's contributions to the evening's program.

In her article "Back Door," Flora Lester facetiously laments her findings that there are only two classes of writers, the swimming pool owner and the garet abider.

"Hello," a humorous monologue by Edna Giles, records one end of a telephone conversation. Mrs. Giles also contributed "My Stillborn," a verse take-off on writers at work.

Mrs. Marty Frank was the guild's guest during the meeting.
